Oh lord I Think I’ve Lost Way by Terry Rocks the Universe Lyrics

Oh lord I think I’ve lost way
Somehow I have gone astray
Now all my threads are starting to fray
Oh lord I think I’ve lost way

Something happened I don’t how
Now I’m lost in the here and now
Don’t know if I’ll ever find my way back
From being stuck on this one-way track

Oh lord I think I’ve lost way
Somehow I have gone astray
Now all my threads are starting to fray
Oh lord I think I’ve lost way

I took a wrong turn some time ago
At the time I just didn’t know
I’m wiser now but it’s too damn late
That wrong turn sealed my fate

Oh lord I think I’ve lost way
Somehow I have gone astray
Now all my threads are starting to fray
Oh lord I think I’ve lost way

I used think I had plenty of time
Always thought I could spin on a dime
It was illusion not really real
At least that’s the way that I feel

Oh lord I think I’ve lost way
Somehow I have gone astray
Now all my threads are starting to fray
Oh lord I think I’ve lost way

Oh lord I think I’ve lost way
Somehow I have gone astray
Now all my threads are starting to fray
Oh lord I think I’ve lost way
